* The longevity increment will be paid at the start of the sixth year and employee will remain there until change in schedule occurs in future years.
 The employee was frozen here at start of new schedule from former schedule and will remain here until the base changes and the percent on the base is used to adjust this amount.
$50.00/school year education credit for related college course; requires submission of official transcripts by September 15.
Effective 05/29/2015: All head coaches, assistant coaches and club sponsors must have the ability to transport students in all District vehicles except those requiring a CDL license.
In the event of athletics extending into post-season competition, a $40/week stipend will be paid for additional competition weeks.
NOTE: The Colorado Division of Labor requires employees to be paid within a certain amount of time from the end of an established pay period. Time sheets are required for seasonal staff (i.e., coaches, assistant coaches) who are not licensed employees of the District. Minimum wage will be paid for the hours worked in a pay period. In the event the total pay has not met the Level and Step assigned to the position, pay will be adjusted at the end of the assignment to meet the Level and Step assigned.
