

RE-1 Valley School District

At A Glance

Preparing Each Student Today for Tomorrow

By the Numbers

- 2,185 students
 - 71% White
 - 25% Hispanic
 - 01% Black/African American
 - 01% Asian
 - 06% English language learners
 - 48% Receive subsidized meals
 - 14% Receive special education services

165 teachers/professional staff

- 52.6% with advanced degrees

- $18,033,853 total budget

- $8,253.00 cost per pupil
- $7,145.00 state per pupil funding

Other Funding Sources (state competitive and federal formula grants)

- $229,000 Early Literacy Grant
- $1,821,526 Federal Formula Grants

- 246,000 meals served annually at school
- 6,782 meals served during the summer
- 16 school buses transport 940 students to school daily.

Key Accomplishments

- 83.3% graduation rate; 90% completion rate (longer than 4 years)
- 70.5% of graduates enrolled in postsecondary education
- 94.3% retention rate at 4-year institutions for RE-1 Valley grads
- 80% of Junior and Seniors enrolled in at least one College Concurrent Enrollment Courses
- 74% of students participating in two or more co-curricular activities
- All Schools' Performance Frameworks at highest level state assigns

RE-1 Valley, Small and Responsive to Student Needs, Large Enough to Offer Choices

Our Schools

Hagen Early Education Center, Ayres Elementary (K-2), Campbell Elementary (3-5), Caliche Elementary (PK-6), Caliche Jr. High, Sterling Middle School, Caliche High School, Sterling High School

Points of Pride

- State and National champions in FBLA, FFA, Science and Engineering, Music, Visual Arts, Drama, and Athletics
- New Technology Education (Digital/Video Production, Digital/Video Game Courses and other Science, Tech, Engineering Arts and Mathematics) added at Sterling High
- Blended Learning Online program for High School Students seeking an alternative
- Year four of competitive Early Literacy Grant funds additional instruction and summer school for K-4
- Gifted Education Summer Academy
- Caliche High School Graduates: 4th lowest college remediation rates in the state. Sterling High School Graduates: 17% below state averages college remediation rates; saving students and parents money on courses that do not count towards a college degree!

Leadership Team

Superintendent

Jan DeLay, Ph.D.

Board of Education

William, "BJ" Ball, President
Cindy Horner, Ph.D., Vice President
Myra Westfall, Treasurer
Cheri Dubs
Joyce Lively
Marty Smock
Bruce Frederiksen